*All tickets are sold subject to availability and these Terms and Conditions, and can be purchased in person by calling into the Box Office, by phone on 01630 654444 or online

*We ask that each customer produces a valid ticket to gain entrance to an event.

*If you lose your ticket(s) admission will still be possible but duplicate tickets will not be printed.

*We would appreciate your help in checking the details on your tickets as it may not always be possible to rectify any mistakes.

*The Centre will endeavour to notify you if an event is cancelled.

*Please note it is not possible to reserve seats without payment.

*Ticket purchases may be restricted to a maximum number.

*For patrons who use a wheelchair or have specific seating requests we ask they contact the Box Office direct. For this reason wheelchair spaces are not available through our online booking service.

* They can be redeemed by quoting the Voucher ID, against the purchase of tickets for most events in the Auditorium (excluding private hire).

*We are unable to exchange gift vouchers for cash.

* A credit balance can be held and the voucher is valid for two years.

* The Centre offers a Friends membership scheme. For an annual subscription, Friends receive a number of benefits including discounted cinema tickets, discounts on some live events and a priority booking period.

*For online bookings Friends will be able to book tickets at the discounted rate when applicable.

Conditions of Admission

*The Centre reserves the right to refuse admission to a customer or request members of the audience to leave the premises in the event of unreasonable behaviour. No refunds will be given in such circumstances.

*Latecomers will not be admitted until the interval or until a suitable break in the performance and alternative seats may need to be occupied.

*The Centre operates allocated seating for events in the Auditorium; seating for Screen 2 events in the Festival Room is unallocated.

*For children's shows and film screenings, a child under the age of two may sit on a parent's lap free of charge (unless otherwise stated). For all other shows please contact the Box Office to determine whether a performance is suitable. For any child over the age of two a ticket must be purchased. Babies are admitted on the understanding that parents sit near an aisle and are prepared to leave the performance if the baby becomes unsettled.

*We always recommend that children are accompanied by an adult; however we will admit children aged 12 and over unaccompanied. Please note unaccompanied children attending films are not the responsibility of the Centre and parents leave children at their own risk.

*A Friends price will be offered on all cinema screenings and may be offered on some live events.

*Where offered a 'family' ticket consists of two adults and two children under the age of 16.

*For National Theatre, Royal Opera House and RSC productions, a concessionary rate of £10.00 for under 21's is available (excepting any age restrictions on the production).

*The Cinema Exhibitors' Association (C.E.A) Card allows the cardholder to obtain one complimentary ticket for a person to provide assistance required as a result of the cardholder's disability, during their visit to the cinema, provided that a full price ticket is purchased by the cardholder for the same film. The assistant's seat should be booked alongside the Card holder's seat.

*Where a concession is claimed, proof of identity and concession entitlement may be required.

*Prices are inclusive of any applicable taxes and any booking or postage fees will be stated clearly at the time of purchase.

*Ticket prices are subject to change. The Centre reserves the right to change the price of tickets and/or introduce discounts/special offers which cannot be retrospectively applied to tickets already purchased.

*All discounts/special offers are offered subject to availability and therefore tickets may not be available at all advertised prices at all times.

*Group bookings: there are currently no discounts offered; please contact the Box Office directly.
